PROJECT ANGEL HUGS

First off, thank you so much to everyone that took time to make Valentines for our children this year! They were all wonderful and so thoughtful! We collected over 70,000 from all over the country! Incredible! Thank you for helping us bring love to the children touched by cancer this Valentines Day!

On to our next HUG packing... Easter! We are collecting individually wrapped Easter candy and small Easter toys. Also, our Amazon wish list is updated with some fun Easter items we could use for our kiddos!

We are excited to bring back our Hunting for Hugs Scavenger Hunt for the third year! Please see page 2 for the save the date for the event!

Thank you again to all of our supporters and volunteers for your help bringing smiles to children touched by cancer.

With gratitude,
Jessica Jensema, Executive Director
